Echo HOA University™

In 2024, Echo successfully launched a new educational program focused on HOA board preparedness. The core curriculum of 10 courses is designed for high-quality training and is available for HOA board members, interested homeowners, and professionals. The courses will initially be offered via live webinar – with eight of the ten courses recorded – to be offered on-demand throughout the year.

Echo HOA University Chancellors and Academic Deans will be refining the program and courses. Terms & Conditions

The Executive Council of Homeowners (Echo) requires all Exhibitors, Sponsors, and Advertisers to be members of Echo in good standing during the term of their secured contracts. Good standing requires that association dues and all outstanding balances be paid in full to Echo prior to the event. All published Schedules are subject to change. The membership requirement may be waived with the express permission of the Executive Director.

PAYMENT POLICY. Prepayment is required prior to all in-person or online events (“Events”) and advertising unless otherwise agreed upon. Echo reserves the right to refuse or cancel any contract it deems appropriate to avoid conflicts of interest. Sponsorship contract and payment are required prior to the marketing activity and/or ad placement unless otherwise agreed upon. Marketing benefits begin once Echo receives a signed contract and payment for the sponsorship and/or advertisement. Cancellation of sponsorship contract will result in a 50% processing fee, plus related costs. Refunds or cancellations cannot be made after any promotional materials have been created.

CLAIMS & LIABILITIES. Each sponsor or advertisement or event participant (“Participants”) agrees to defend, indemnify and hold Echo harmless, including reasonable attorney’s fees, by reason of any demand, claim, action, cause of action or liabilities for any injury or damage resulting, sustained or alleged to be sustained by any person or persons, whether they are employees and subcontractors of Echo, or others, occurring at or connected with the production of events, as well as from any demand, claim, action, causes of action or liability arising by virtue of viruses, malware, other malicious software or components resident within any downloadable content or software files that is available to other event participants or attendees (“Viruses”). Echo reserves the right to cancel the event for any reason, or for no reason. All published schedules are subject to change. Echo shall not be held liable for any errors or omissions on signage, promotional material, or references in catalogues, etc. All points not covered by this contract and all disputes that may arise as a consequence are subject to the final decision and determination of the Echo Board of Directors.

Echo shall neither be held responsible for the legality of or the accuracy or correctness of content or materials of contracted Participants, nor shall they be held responsible for any financial or property damage caused by Viruses to Participants or attendees. Participants expressly warrant that the content they provide is legal and correct. They further agree to hold harmless and indemnify Echo if any claims or actions arise in this regard. Each Participant agrees that if he, she, or it suffers property, financial or other liability or damage as a result of downloading content available at Expo that contains Viruses that he, she or it (i) will not assert or maintain against Echo, its board members, officers, employees or agents any claim, action, suit or demand of any kind or nature whatsoever relating to any such damages and/or liability, and (ii) releases such parties, and each of them, from and against any and all claims, liabilities, demands, actions, causes of action, costs and expenses whatsoever, at law or in equity, known or unknown, anticipated or unanticipated, which he, she, or it ever had, now have, or may, shall or hereafter have by reason of such damages and/or liability. Echo does not represent or warrant that the Echo website or any virtual platform utilized by Echo (“Site”) will be error-free, free of viruses, or that defects will be corrected. Echo does not represent or warrant that the information available on or through the Site will be correct, accurate, timely or otherwise reliable. Echo reserves the right to make changes to the features, functionality, or content of the site at any time. Echo reserves the right in their sole discretion to edit or delete any documents, information or other content appearing on the site including Photography and Video. Exhibitor grants permission to Echo to use their image(s) in video or other or marketing activity, and of the likeness and sound of their voice as recorded on audio or video tape without payment or any other consideration unless otherwise agreed upon. Exhibitor further agrees that images may be edited, copied, exhibited, published, or distributed for marketing purposes and in educational settings and waive the right to inspect or approve the finished product wherein their likeness appears.

SALES & SOLICITATIONS (Suitcasing). Echo considers the practice of suitcasing to be unethical business conduct and strictly prohibits the practice at any Echo event. Suitcasing refers to the practice of companies or persons who attend events as attendees who engage in “working the aisles” (or chat rooms in a virtual setting) from their “suitcase” to solicit business from other attendees and Exhibitors. For the good of the event, and the Exhibitors who financially support the event, the only legitimate place to conduct business during event hours is within a contracted virtual exhibit booth area or, in the case of an in-person event, at the space contracted for sales including the table and exhibit areas as appropriate. There is to be no sales messaging by non-exhibiting suppliers within the event using event virtual, video, or other communication platforms.

All publication rights, reproduction rights and copyrights (except trademarks) are the property of Echo unless otherwise noted in this contract.
